

VIRTUAL

MARCH 09, 2021 @ 9AM

CAREER DAY

YOUR ACADEMIC CAREER
OWN IT!

How can you develop a personal strategy for academic career development? How can you work on it proactively? What are the relevant puzzle pieces when pursuing an academic career? This virtual Career Day is about both considering skills and opportunities for a successful career development in academia. Take the chance to gather information, to prepare for road blocks, to network, and to develop your personal career strategy further!

Program

09:00 - 09:55 Keynote "Competing in academia: Is a career strategy required?"
Dr. Jane Reznick & Prof. Dr. Guido Grosse, Moderation: Julia Lehnhof

10:00 - 11:00 Session I: Seriously improving your networking skills (while having fun)
Julia Lehnhof

Coffee Break

11:15 - 12:15 Session II: How to get tenure (and the road blocks you may encounter)
Dr. Matthias Schwarzkopf

Lunch Break

13:15 - 14:00 Parallel Info Sessions

In a nutshell 1: The German Science System

Dr. Marieke Üzümlü

In a nutshell 2: Professorship at a University of Applied Sciences (FH)

Prof. Dr. Haiko Schlink

In a nutshell 3: European funding Streams: An ERC Focus

Dr. Angela Richter

14:00 - 15:25 Parallel Workshops addressing the hard questions for careers in academia

What if ...

(1) ... patience and luck are not enough?

Dr. Anne Mazuga

(2) ... I don't have easy access to teaching opportunities?

Prof. Dr. Maren Brehme, Dr. Stefano Basso, Prof. Dr. Anna Cord

(3) ... a permanent research position in my institute is out of sight?

Dr. Neela Enke

15:30 - 16:00 Sharing results